A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It could be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress, "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or a "sour" rising in the throat after eating, and blood symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will relieve you more promptly or surely than any other medicine.

The "Discovery" is a non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

The American Federation of Labor in session in Norfolk by a vote of 154 to 50, Saturday refused to place itself on record as favoring the government ownership of railroads and mines. The opponents took the ground that government ownership of mines and railroads would prevent all strikes, no matter how peaceably they might be conducted, and that with a federal government opposed to labor it might prove a death blow. Victor L. Berger, of Milwaukee, the socialist leader, led the fight for the endorsement of government ownership. Delegate Feeley, of Milwaukee, declared that they were making the government favorable to labor by ballot, and that if this was properly used, men, "in power, some of whose wives now give dog and monkey dinners at Newport," would be succeeded by others who might conduct affairs equally as well.

The salary of President Samuel Gompers was raised from $3,000 to $5,000 per annum; of Secretary Morrison from $2,500 to $4,000, and of Treasurer Lennon from $300 to $500. Mr. Berger was the only one to oppose the $5,000 salary.

President Gompers declaring that $4,000 was enough, and that such a great increase might injure the cause of labor. The federation placed itself on record as favoring a system of government postal savings banks.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Tibbels and W. F. Creighton & Co.

DEPRIVED OF HIS WHISKERS.

For 50 years Abraham Bader, aged 70, of Philadelphia, has been growing a beard which until yesterday morning, reached to his knees. In two seconds it went up in smoke—in spite of the fact that Engine Company No. 10 hurriedly answered a call to extinguish the flames. Last night, Walter Collins and Lawrence Richardson, each 17, were being held for court in $300 bail each. Bader's beard was so long that he used to tuck it into the top of his boots, and in cold weather he wrapped it about his neck like a comforter. The old man liked boys, and when Collins and Richardson approached him yesterday morning and asked him for a match, he replied "sure."

Bader handed the boys a match. Before he could realize it, one of the boys had scratched the match and thrust the flame into Bader's whiskers. There was a puff of smoke and a scream. Some one yelled fire, and in half a minute the engine company was on the spot, but it was too late. The fire had burned itself out in that brief period and left Bader disconsolate.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists. See and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

HOWARD GOULD POSTS HIS WIFE

Howard Gould sent this advertisement to the newspapers in New York Saturday night: "All persons are hereby notified that Mrs. Gould and myself are living separate and apart; that Mrs. Gould is furnished by me with funds sufficient for necessary and reasonable requirements, and that I will not be responsible for any purchases made or debts contracted by Mrs. Howard Gould or any person acting for her."

Clarence J. Shears, counsel for Mrs. Howard Gould, said yesterday: "The statement in Mr. Gould's advertisement that he is furnishing Mrs. Gould with an allowance for her support is not true. During the past year, Mrs. Gould has not received one dollar from her husband. Furthermore, Mr. Gould has refused to pay bills incurred for mere necessities of life, and has permitted Mrs. Gould to be sued for such bills. He even rented Castle Gould and retained all the proceeds, although practically all the personal property on the place had been bought by Mrs. Gould and paid for by her out of her allowance."

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating colds in the head, just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or sniffing. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which, if not checked, becomes chronic and runs into a head case of sinuses.

A Great Roast!

Over a ton of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is roasted at a time, in a large revolving cylinder, which drops the coffee through heat again and again until each bean is uniformly roasted. No other coffee is in sufficient demand to afford such scientific and perfect preparation.

The sales of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee exceed the sales of all other packaged coffees combined, and this scientific roasting, which no other coffee can afford, by its very magnitude, reduces our cost to a minimum, and enables us, with our other advantages, to give better value in Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee than is possible for any one else.

Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is the cheapest good coffee in the world, and the best of all for you.

YOUNG WIFE SHOT.

Mrs. W. Brydon Tennant, formerly Miss Bruce Williams, one of the most prominent young society matrons in Richmond, met instant death in her home, on Grace street, yesterday morning, through the medium of a revolver. She died almost immediately without having spoken. Mrs. Tennant had been in ill health for a number of years. As Miss Williams, daughter of Charles U. Williams, a prominent lawyer, Mrs. Tennant was a reigning society belle up to the time of her marriage, which took place five years ago. She was regarded as a very beautiful young woman. Her family is well known and prominently connected throughout the State. She was related on one side to the Davenports, who are said to be the wealthiest people in Richmond.

Miss Anne Tennant, a sister of Mrs. Tennant's husband, married Stuart Bryant, an editor of the Times Dispatch. Mrs. Tennant leaves one child. A younger sister of Mrs. Tennant made her debut into society last winter. Mr. Tennant is a prominent clubman. A trained nurse had left the room occupied by Mrs. Tennant a few moments before the shooting. Members of the family say the shooting was accidental.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The "holmes-green" leaves and tender stems of a long-healing mountain shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heaves the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a genuine plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

According to dispatches from Berlin, Germany is anxious for the formation of a league with England and the United States. Dr. Adolf von Floeck, formerly secretary of the German legation in Mexico City, and now a keen observer of and writer on international affairs, discussing the visit in Die Grenzboten, of Berlin, develops the idea that the United States, Germany and Great Britain, belonging to the German Protestant world, should draw closer together and follow in common the same general international aims. Germany, this writer urges, should have no understanding or agreement with Great Britain of which the United States is not informed, and in which the United States is not invited to participate. This provision, Dr. von Floeck says, should be insisted upon by Germany preliminary to making any such agreement, especially in view of the existing situation between the United States and Japan. It is not believed that Japan is causing much loss of sleep to most people in the United States, and even in the improbable event of a clash of arms between the Mongolians and this country the United States should be able to fight its own battles. General Washington's warning is ever in order, especially when proposals similar to the above are made.

OKLAHOMA, the new and forty-sixth State admitted to the union on Saturday, is of such proportions that but few realize its extent and importance. That it was not sooner admitted was because the democrats had a majority and would send two democratic Senators to Washington. The pressure, however, was too great and justice has at last been done the people of the new State. Oklahoma has 70,430 square miles, or an area greater than the whole of New England. The property value exceeds $1,000,000,000. It has nearly 6,000 miles of railroads. The percentage illiteracy is 7, while in the United States it is 10.3. The cities range in population from 6,000 to 40,000 and are rapidly growing. The Indians number 39,000, and comprise Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Seminoles and Cherokees. The State produces cattle, corn, cotton, fine small fruit, potatoes, all cereals, coal, asphalt, oil, natural gas, granite, marble, gypsum, lead, zinc and valuable woods.

EACH day's developments in the financial situation now tends more and more to confirm the theory that large speculators are hoarding immense sums of money in order to sell it at a premium. New York bankers estimate that some $60,000,000 recently withdrawn from banks is now hoarded in that city, and it is declared positively that some of the principal bidders of ready cash are well-known and wealthy society men and women. Their sole object is to gain a profit from national suffering and it seems that under the present financial system nothing can be done to prevent such transactions.

ANOTHER victim of vaccination is reported in Brooklyn. Ethel O'Keefe, aged six years, died from lockjaw following inoculation. The coroner found that the girl, who is the daughter of a Canadian tobacco merchant, had been vaccinated eighteen days ago by a woman physician employed by the Board of Health, that she might be admitted to a public school. Last Sunday the child was seized with convulsions, but not until five doctors had been summoned was a satisfactory diagnosis made and it was then too late to afford any relief. The little girl died on Wednesday.

From Washington.

Washington, Nov. 18.—To Secretary Cortelyou alone is attributed the discovery of the hitherto unused provision of the revenue law of June 13, 1898, whereby the government is enabled to float a maximum of $100,000,000 three per cent. certificates of indebtedness, the proceeds of which will be deposited in the various National Banks of the south and west, to relieve the present money stringency, and facilitate the movement of the crops. Most of that law has been repealed, but, strange to say, section 32, the only one not repealed, and the only one of which the government had never availed itself, still remains on the statute books. After his discovery, the Secretary went to New York last week, and conferred with several of the financial magnates. They gave their unqualified endorsement of the plan, and expressed confidence that it would accomplish the results desired. Following this, there were daily conferences at the White House between the President and various members of the cabinet. The Cortelyou plan was speedily approved. The only question was whether or not the President should make public a personal statement in connection with its promulgation. Secretary Root, upon whose advice the President has been relying to a great extent in the recent crisis, advocated a statement from the President that would tend to reassure the public and release from safe deposit boxes the large amounts of currency that had recently been withdrawn from the banks. In fact, it is understood that the President entrusted largely to Root the preparations of the open letter Secretary Cortelyou, signed by the President, which was given to the press last night. It is the expectation of the administration that the certificate proposition will meet with a direct response. In view of this arrangement, have been made to issue temporary receipts to subscribers, these to be taken up later, and certificates issued in their places as soon as they can be turned out by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The certificates will begin to draw interest from next Wednesday. Much surprise is manifested to-day that the government was enabled to keep under cover this certificate plan which is said to have been agreed upon three days ago. The Panama canal bond scheme was allowed to become public property as soon as the President gave it his approval. The recent rush of the national banks to increase their circulation under the invitation of the treasury department, which assured them that gilt-edge State, municipal and railroad bonds would be accepted as security, has swamped the clerks of the divisions which have to handle this subject. It is estimated that there are awaiting examination from ten to twelve tons of securities of this character. They don't exactly come in like bales of hay, but they have been arriving in large packages, and they weigh heavily. The process of passing upon them is necessarily slow. Each individual bond has to be closely examined to see that the proper amount of coupons is still attached, and to figure upon the price at which they can safely be accepted as collateral. The clerks are working over time, but it will probably be several weeks before they can complete their task, as it is a job that none but experts can undertake.

Congratulations for his letter of disavowal and for the Treasury's bond plan poured in upon the President to-day. Nearly every caller that came on business or to shake the President's hand assured him that the relief measures would be immediate and lasting.

The U. S. Supreme Court today decided that the State of Georgia had wrongfully assessed the Central of Georgia Railway Company, and the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company, on a tax stock held in the Western Railway and Banking Company. The decision of the Supreme Court of Georgia was reversed and the case remanded back to it. The court held the taxation was taking property without the due process of law.

Regis H. Post, of Porto Rico, is in danger of losing his official head. Charges have been filed against him and the President has asked him to show cause why he should not be removed. In a speech last September he is said to have called the educational authorities and missionaries "parasites," and threatened to "get" them and "break" them.

When the representatives of the five Central American Republics to the peace conference, which is being held here, resumed their sessions this morning, a number of resolutions were presented for discussion concerning the steps to be taken to bring about the establishment of permanent peace. The delegates are getting down to the real business of their meeting, with cheerful anticipation of success.

A bond issue for $500,000,000 to pay for the improvement of all the great waterway projects in the country was proposed to the President today by Representative Bartholdi. "I cannot quote the President's views on the matter," said Dr. Bartholdi, "but I may say that I have assurances that the idea is in line with his policies."

THE MCCRACKENS ARRESTED.

Mrs. Ruth McCracken, her two daughters, Annie Jane and Ruth, and her son, William J. McCracken, were arrested in Baltimore yesterday upon the request of the District of Columbia authorities, who charge them with swindling a number of Washington merchants. Mrs. McCracken, one son and a daughter were found hiding in cupboards.

Mrs. McCracken, who has the appearance of a cultivated woman, is sixty years old. The son is twenty-seven years old, and her two daughters twenty-one and nineteen, respectively. They are natives of Scotland.

Mrs. McCracken appeared in Washington about two months ago, and rented a house at 1235 Connecticut avenue northwest. She then visited many merchants along Connecticut avenue and obtained about $10,000 worth of goods on credit. The woman's actions were called to the attention of the police, but before detectives could reach her house she had disappeared. Investigation disclosed, it is alleged, that much of the property was shipped from the city.

Secretary Taft.

Vladivostok, Nov. 18.—Secretary of War Taft and his party dined with General Irmann today. The visitors spent most of their time driving and visiting points of interest under the escort of Prince Naritsinsky and Baron Sacken. The reception was very cordial, though the authorities fear outbreaks, of which there is constant danger, by revolutionaries. The Secretary and his suite will leave on a special car, accompanied by Russian military and naval aides, over the Trans-Siberian railroad for St. Petersburg at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. The converted cruiser Rainbow, on which Mr. Taft came from Manila, and its escort, the cruisers Chataanooga and Galveston, will then sail southward at once. Though no intimation of the kind had been conveyed by the Russian authorities, it is known their presence in the harbor is a matter of some embarrassment in view of the constant fears of nothing among the Czar's military and naval forces. The Secretary will make short stops at St. Petersburg, Berlin, and Paris and sail from Hamburg on the steamship President Grant December 7.

White objects to his daughter's marriage on account of her age, she being only sixteen years old.

Henry L. Saur, a Southern Railway employe, twenty-three years old, of Washington, was found dead in his room yesterday morning. Gas was escaping from an open jet just above his bed.

THE METHODISTS.

Reports from Rev. W. G. Bates, of the Bible Society committee; W. W. Vicars, secretary and treasurer of the Presbytery of Relief Society, and Rev. Dr. D. D. Smart, of the committee on publishing interests, occupied most of the fourth day's session of the Virginia Southern Methodist Episcopal Conference in Petersburg, Saturday.

The Bible Society committee's report recommended that the Bible be used in the public schools of the country, and contained the statement that since the organization of the American Bible Society 180,420,382 volumes of the Scriptures and parts of the Scriptures have been distributed in over 400 languages. During the year ending March 31 last 1,010,058 volumes were sent forth from the Bible House in New York.

The report from the Presbytery of Relief Society showed the accumulation of a fund of $40,000. The report of the publishing interests committee showed the net sales of the publishing house to have been $548,680.51, with a net gain of $43,149.72, despite a loss of $4,684.25 by the Epworth Era.

A report was submitted by Rev. W. G. Bates, from the Bible Society committee, recommending among other things that the Bible be used in the public schools of the country. The report was adopted.

Dr. Lipscomb reported on the case of Rev. N. B. Smith, formerly pastor of Wesley Church, Petersburg, who with-out notice left his pastorate last June, and now sent in his credentials and surrendered his membership in the Methodist Church and his position in its ministry.

Bishop Galloway, of Mississippi, yesterday ordained four deacons.

The Conference today decided to meet in Norfolk next year.

Fire at Rockefeller Home.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Wm. E. Rockefeller and his wife were routed out of bed today by a fire which threatened to destroy "Rockwood Hall," their beautiful country home. The cottages of the retainers and a cow barn were consumed. Rockefeller and his neighbors formed a bucket brigade and saved the big house. A jersey bull, valued at $5,000, three valuable cows and three full blooded horses were burned.

Mrs. Henry C. Brock, wife of the professor of Greek and French at Hampden-Sydney, died on Saturday.

Kendrick B. Herndon, a Confederate veteran, died in Fredericksburg Saturday at the home of his son-in-law, R. C. Perry, aged sixty-nine years.

John Longbrum, one of the oldest residents of Clarke county, died last week at his home in the Blue Ridge Mountains, aged ninety years.

Gov. Swanson says he is in favor of the people electing the members of the State Corporation Commission. He will make such recommendation to the general assembly in his annual message.

Cole and Ratcliffe, of North Fork, Loudoun county, have sold to N. S. Payne the mill property at North Fork containing thirty-two acres and an adjoining tract of twenty-two acres for the sum of $5,000.

Fire, starting from crossed electric wires, burned out the fourth and fifth stories of the furniture house of the Willis-Smith-Crall Company, Church and Main streets, Norfolk, about six o'clock Saturday night, causing damage estimated at $100,000.

Fire originating from hot-water pipes caused a panic among a hundred children in the Clay street Methodist Church Sunday School in Richmond yesterday, and but for the superintendent serious consequences might have resulted. Standing in their midst the superintendent urged the children to go out quietly and after the first rush there was little danger of an accident.

Dr. Moncure D. Conway, a native of Stafford, and son of the late Wm. Peyton Conway, died in Paris last Friday. He was in the 76th year of his age, having been born March 17, 1832. Dr. Conway was a distinguished author and lecturer. He was a brother of Mr. P. V. D. Conway, of Fredericksburg, and is also survived by one sister, Mrs. A. March, of Easton, Pa. Two children also survive him, Mr. Eustace Conway, a prominent lawyer, and Mrs. Mildred C. Sawyer, both of New York.

Director-General Martin announces that a company of gentlemen, whose names are yet to be disclosed, have organized a proposition to the Jamestown Exposition Company to take charge of the operation of the trolley for the four months next year, paying a small lease for the property and turning over a certain per cent. of the gate receipts to be credited to the loan of $1,000,000. The idea is to operate the big fair as it is this year and in addition develop it into a great County Island park.

The Corporation Commission on Saturday issued an order directing that the State proxies in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad should contain two other names than those who have for years attended to the State's interest in the road. There have been seven of these proxies for the last several years, and the action of the commission raises the number to nine. The board representing the State at this time is composed as follows: A. L. Holladay, Hiram Tyler, John B. Purcell, John E. Broadbent, E. D. Cole, of Fredericksburg; C. Lee Moore, of F. W. Christian and C. V. Meredith. The two last named are the new members.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS.

At Saturday's session in Norfolk of the United Daughters of the Confederacy the announcement was made by Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, of New York, that she was authorized by Dean Russell, president of the New York Teachers' College, to offer a scholarship to a descendant of a soldier who served in the Confederate army for the year 1908-1909.

The scholarship will be provided for from the educational fund at Dean Russell's command, and is to be in any institute of learning preferred by the recipient and will be bestowed annually. Only the actual educational costs, however, will be defrayed from the fund, and a motion was made and carried that the national society of the Daughters of the Confederacy shall defray the accompanying living expenses.

An annual estimate of these at $350 was adopted upon, and the amount for the present year was quickly raised by donations from State divisions and private subscriptions. The scholarships will be awarded to the States in rotation, beginning with Alabama.

The report of the Jefferson Davis monument committee showed a donation of $50,000 from the United Daughters for defraying the cost of the Davis memorial recently unveiled in Richmond, against $26,000 contributed by the United Confederate Veterans Association.

Mrs. Behan, of New Orleans, offered a request that any amount remaining over from the monument fund be appropriated by the Daughters as a nucleus of a fund towards erecting a monument to Mr. Davis in New Orleans.

The prize of $100 offered by the Daughters last year for the best essay on "The Status of Education in the South Prior to the War Between the States" was awarded to Prof. Coleman, of the University of Toronto, Canada.

MORE BONDS.

Secretary Cortelyou last night made the important announcement that as a means of affording relief to the financial situation, the Treasury would issue $50,000,000 of Panama bonds and $100,000,000 of certificates of indebtedness, or so much thereof as may be necessary. The certificates will run for one year and will bear 8 per cent. interest. The Secretary's action in coming to the relief of the financial situation meets with President Roosevelt's hearty approval, and the plan is the outcome of the several White House conferences which have been held within the past few days, when the financial situation was under consideration.

In his letter authorizing the issue of Panama bonds and "debt certificates" the President said: "What is most needed is that our citizens should realize how fundamentally sound conditions are and how absurd to entertain a panic and create a stringency by hoarding their savings."

"The people can help themselves and the country most by putting back into active circulation the money they are hoarding."

"I appeal to the country to co-operate with us."

Today's Telegraphic News.

Taylor and Finley. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18.—All doubt of the future course of Wm. S. Taylor and Charles Finley, ex-governor and ex-Secretary of State of Kentucky, exiles in Indiana, since the shooting of Gov. Gobel, was dispelled today when Taylor said that he has not decided on the date of his return any more definitely than the first of the year, but that he certainly is going back. Governor elect Willson, of Kentucky, was here a few hours last night and left for Washington.

Concerning Taylor and Finley he said: "The cases of Taylor and Finley, like that of Caleb Powers, are on the court docket of Kentucky and must be tried like other cases, but if Taylor and Finley come back they must have a speedy, fair and impartial trial. Taylor and Finley will come when I send for them and I will send for them. I shall protect them when they come, and insist that they have a fair trial. I am convinced they were turned out of office by fraudulent action of the legislature after being elected by clear majorities. All Kentucky knows this as well as I. During the years I am governor we are going to have law and order in Kentucky."

Slump Hits Stage Folk.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—More than 1500 actors and actresses and chorus girls are stranded in Chicago, out of engagements and "broken." The situation does not include the army of circus people and those engaged in the lyceum branch of the amusement business. Actors, actresses and chorus girls crowd the "Rialto," haunt the agencies and in desperation search the help wanted columns of the daily papers. The financial stringency, failure of many new productions and generally bad season are blamed.

Stage girls, around whom the press agent in brighter days has woven tales of automobiles, stolen diamonds and millions of dollars, are seeking employment as waitresses, laundresses, housekeepers and maids-of-all-work. Fourteen shows have succumbed to the inevitable during the week and returned to Chicago.

Impending Financial Crisis.

London, Nov. 18.—The financial crisis is impending in Germany now, British financiers think. Commercial authorities liken the situation to the one which caused the recent flurry in the United States. They fear the storm will be more serious in Germany than in America, however. It is pointed out that several German banks have recently failed, that financial houses are trying hard to conceal the existing stringency and that greater difficulty is constantly being experienced finding out its capital. Investors have been unloading German securities quietly for some time, and the recent shaking up in the United States has reduced everything to the point of actual values, although neither of these countries is likely to suffer. Austria, Italy and Russia would probably feel a German crisis severely, however, and its influence would probably be felt in France.

The Wedding of Prince Charles and Princess Louise.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Official and social Paris is watching with keen curiosity to see how the French government treats U. S. Ambassador White in view of his attending the wedding of Prince Charles and Princess Louise, of France, Saturday. Considering the festivities will be in the nature of a royalist demonstration against the French republic and that Ambassador White's official relations are wholly with the latter, it is suggested a hint to Washington for his withdrawal is not impossible. Ambassador Reid, in London, sent his regrets. King Edward ignored the invitation and King Alfonso made it clear that he went only out of regard for Prince Charles, his brother-in-law.

Another Strike Imminent.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Negotiations between the eastern railroads and the Switchmen's Union of North America are practically ended. Unless one side or the other recedes before night, serious developments are expected. All the railroads east of Chicago and thousands of men are concerned. The switchmen ask six cents an hour more pay, an eight-hour working day, double pay for overtime, and time and one-half on Sundays.

Concessions, they say, were granted on the west end of Chicago a year ago. The railroad managers refuse all demands, saying the companies finances will not permit further concessions.

China to Thank United States.

Shanghai, Nov. 18.—The Chinese government is going to send a special mission to Washington to thank the United States for returning $22,000,000 of the $24,000,000 China paid the latter on account of the Boxer rebellion. The United States devoted $2,000,000 to the indemnification of Americans who lost property in China but handed the rest back, on the ground that China was not responsible, as a government, for the uprising and should not be required to pay punitive damages. European governments were not so liberal.

Fatal Jump.

New York, Nov. 18.—Mary Mitchell jumped from the second-story fire escape in front of the Salvation Army Hotel in the Bowery today into a group of men and women on their way to work, narrowly missing striking several in her fall and was killed on the sidewalk in the midst of the crowd. She had been stopping at the hotel for some time, but seemed uncommunicative and, as it is the Salvation Army rule to ask no questions of patrons, nothing is known except her name. She was about 35 years old.

A Russian Protest.

Constantinople, Nov. 18.—The Russian minister protested vigorously to the Porte today against the seizure of Serdecti, Persia, by Turkish troops. The exact nature of his complaint has not been made public, but it is understood the Turkish government has been warned that further aggression will be met with force from Russia.

The Bradley Trial.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—Materially strengthened through the study her attorneys have been able to put upon it during the two days recess of court, the defense of Mrs. Bradley was opened today. The list of the witnesses has been lengthened to thirty. Mr. Bradley, who is loath to assail the character of the man she killed, has been persuaded, when she goes on the stand, to lay bare many details not known before. Also additional evidence strengthening the insanity defense has been obtained.

With its first witnesses today, the defense laid the foundation for the plea of insanity. Newspaper men testified to Mrs. Bradley's actions immediately after the tragedy; and her Salt Lake physicians told of operations upon her for blood poisoning, the last of which resulted in delirium lasting several days.

The all-out, he said, frequently affected the brain permanently. The testimony of one of the reporters served to bring out for the first time evidence as to occurrences in the room at the Raleigh Hotel before the shooting. Mrs. Bradley declared to this witness that she had asked Brown to do the right thing by her. He had refused, and started to leave the room. Then she shot him.

After the testimony of the newspaper men a recess was taken.

The Mauretania.

Queensford, Ireland, Nov. 18.—The last heard from the new Cunard Mauretania, now on her maiden trans-Atlantic voyage, was a wireless message at 10 last night, when the ship was 207 miles west of Fastnet Rock and making an average of 24 1-11 knots, the equivalent of 27.74 land miles, hourly, or a knot an hour better than the Lusitania's record. The vessel is reported as very steady, though the weather has not been good thus far and the swell is heavy.

Guarding the Vault.

London, Nov. 18.—The Highgate Cemetery authorities have placed a guard over the vault in which O. T. Druce's coffin rests to prevent persons interested in the Druce-Portland litigation from opening it. The spot is left unwatched neither day or night. A huge watch dog shares the watchmen's vigilance. The vault has become a show place. Robert Caldwell, who says it contains 200 pounds of lead and that Druce was really the Duke of Portland, was again on the witness stand today under cross-examination concerning the manner in which he professes to have cured the Duke's bulbous nose.

Fire in Hotel.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 18.—Several members of Mrs. J. J. Barry's company, early today, when she was at the Windsor Hotel to the actress, Mrs. Leslie Carter Paine was not at the hotel, having gone to New York over Sunday. While the Du Barry players escaped in their night clothes, Wm. Speyer, a Chicago traveling salesman, overcame in his room on the fourth floor, had to be carried out by firemen. The fire started in the Windsor grill and spread to the adjoining building.

TRAGEDIES.

Professor Underwood, of Columbia University, New York, during a fit of insanity at Redding, Conn., Saturday, attempted to murder his wife by cutting her throat with a knife, attacked his daughter, and then took his own life by slashing himself in the neck with the weapon which he used upon his wife.

His reason undermined by the hallucination that he was bankrupt and would lose his daughter penniless, Maj. Frank McLaughlin, a widely known politician and mining promoter, of Santa Cruz, Cal., on Saturday shot and mortally wounded his daughter, Agnes, after which he swallowed cyanide of potassium, dying almost instantly. Following the death of his wife, two years ago, grief unbalanced him mentally, although his condition was known to but a few intimate friends.

Fascination with an anti-suicide device is what led Nora May French, the poet, to destroy herself at Carmel-by-the-Sea, Cal. Investigation has developed that her uncle, a Presbyterian minister, had often spoke of his abhorrence of suicide. He told her if the thought of self-destruction even entered her mind to sit pistol in hand, in a shadow's path, and to shoot when the edge of the shadow reached her.

"By that time you will have repented," said her uncle, "and you will not shoot."

This idea fascinated the girl. With a revolver hidden in her dress, she hurried out to a quiet spot on the edge of the pine forest, pulled the pistol at her head, and there the trigger. Her hand was not steady, and the bullet sped by her head, clipping one of her curls. Still under the spell, the emotional girl—she was little else—swallowed poison and returned to bed. Doctors who were called found her dead.

Maddened by her refusal to marry him, Alfred W. Week, of Chester, Pa., shot and killed Emma Krumer, seventeen years old, of Frankford, at Orthodox and Cambridge streets Philadelphia, at 6:30 Saturday morning, in the presence of a large crowd of men and women on their way to work. "If you won't be my wife here I'll make you marry me in heaven," cried Week, as he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired four shots at the girl. She fell to the ground unconscious with two bullets in her head and one in her body. Week, half crazed by what he had done, discharged the remaining cartridge in the air, and then brandished the revolver above his head. As soon as the crowd of men and women on the street realized what Week had done, they ran toward him. He was surrounded by a group of infuriated workmen, who kicked and struck the dazed youth. He made no resistance, and a number of the men were threatening to kill Week when a policeman of the Frankford station arrived.

Terrific Wind Storms.

Mexico City, Nov. 18.—Advices from Vera Cruz, Progreso, Coahuila and other ports on the lower Gulf coast, say terrific wind storms have prevailed for several days and great damage has been done shipping. A number of fishing smacks and coasting vessels have been lost, but no lives have been reported lost.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind" is an old saying which applies with special force to those who are lost. A man named Buck, who was lost in the mountains of Mexico, was found by a group of men and children and taken to a hospital in Mexico. He was found by a group of men and children and taken to a hospital in Mexico. He was found by a group of men and children and taken to a hospital in Mexico.

BRASS AND COPPER STOLEN.

Lieutenant Bettis and Officer Gill this morning captured 2,600 pounds of pig brass and copper in the warehouses of the Southern and Metal Company at the northeast corner of King and Lee streets. The metal had been brought to this city on the ferryboat which reached here at 7:45 o'clock. The driver, James Burgess, was taken in custody together with a young man, who gave his name as James Burke.

When the officers entered the warehouse the proprietors of the place had weighed nearly all the metal. It was replaced in the wagon and the horse's head turned toward the station house and Burke and Burgess were locked up. The proprietors of the junk store say that Burke came to their place of business last Saturday and asked the price of pig brass and copper, and made arrangements for delivering a lot of the same this morning. There is reason to believe that other men who accompanied him from Washington were on the outside. According to the agreement, the wagon containing about four hundred dollars' worth of metal appeared in front of the warehouse about 8 o'clock, and the contents were removed from the wagon.

Burke, after having been locked up, said he was from Oregon and had been employed by two men, one of whom was named Webster, to assist in loading the metal. He alleged he did not know the name of the other man. Burke stated that, according to directions, he went to a lot near the navy yard about 5 o'clock this morning and with the two other men and Burgess, driver of the wagon, placed the copper and brass into the vehicle and subsequently accompanied it to this city. When asked if he was in the warehouses of the Southern and Metal Company on Saturday he said he was not.

The purpose of transporting metal to Alexandria. He was on hand, according to appointment, and after the copper and brass had been placed in the wagon he, accompanied by the three men, drove to the ferry wharf for the purpose of catching the 6 o'clock boat for this city. They were, however, a few minutes too late and were compelled to wait for the 7:15 boat. Upon reaching Alexandria Webster and the unknown man entered a saloon, while Burke accompanied him (Burgess) to the building occupied by the Southern and Metal Company. Later the officers appeared, arrested him and Burke and seized the metal.

The metal, it is supposed, was stolen from the navy yard or the steel plant. Officer Gill discovered the contents of the wagon when it reached this city and notified Lieutenant Bettis and the latter with Officer Gill soon made the arrests and captured the plunder.

WEDDED IN MEMORIAL HALL.

About 7 o'clock last night a young man and a young woman appeared on the lower floor of the M. E. Church South where the Epworth League was holding services. When the services had closed the couple approached Rev. O. D. Bulla, pastor of the church, and told him that they desired to embark upon the sea of life as man and wife and requested him to tie the nuptial knot. The couple seemed to be shy and desired to be married as quietly as possible and without any unnecessary witnesses being present. Mr. Bulla told the man and woman that he had no time to go to the parsonage with them, and suggested that probably but few people were in the auditorium of the church at the time, and he could marry them there. They followed the minister up stairs, but upon seeing several early comers in the church, their nerve failed them. The anxious couple then proposed that they return to the room where the Epworth League had met, supposing that by that time, the room would have been deserted, but a few members still lingered and they again flinched at the thought of being married even before that corporal's guard. Mr. Bulla then told them that in about eight minutes he would be expected in his pulpit, and if the young man and woman would agree he would accompany them into the George R. Hill Memorial Hall, now approaching completion, and there perform the marriage ceremony. By this time the curiosity of some persons had been aroused, but before any number could assemble in the new structure the couple had been pronounced man and wife. A young lady, however, upon realizing what had transpired, took a seat at the piano and discoursed the wedding march as the newly-wedded pair sought the street.

CONCERT.

In addition to those whose names have appeared, three well-known Alexandria singers will be heard at the concert tomorrow evening at St. Paul's Church Parish Hall—Mrs. Raymond Hulfish and Miss Lucy Graves, both of whom were soloists in the choir of that church for several years, and Mr. Kenneth O'Leary, the popular tenor soloist at Christ Church. Mrs. Hulfish's number will be "O'Dawn," by Somerset, and (b) "A Keopake," by Metcalf. Miss Graves will sing Edgar's "The Swimmer." The work of these singers is well known to the music-loving public of Alexandria, and their appearance will add much to the pleasure of those who attend the concert.

Mahon, 1113 Duke street, Alexandria; baggage-master, O. W. Loving, Washington; flagman, A. M. Rust, Washington.

The old station was desolate yesterday, all trains entering and departing from the new depot. Many thousands of persons visited the new station yesterday including a number from this city.

THE FIRE YESTERDAY.

About one o'clock yesterday afternoon the roof of the residence of William B. Dalany, on the south side of Duke street, between Columbus and Alfred, was found to be burning. An alarm was sounded and the engines and the Relief Hook and Ladder truck were on the ground. The fire burned furiously for a short time, but was subdued soon as the fire department went to work. Most of the damage was under the roof. The house was destroyed by a defective flue. The house was owned by the Fairfax Mutual Fire Insurance Co. William Dalany, who is a barber of the President, was in shaving Mr. Roosevelt when a telephone message was received that his home in Alexandria was burning. He was naturally very anxious concerning the safety of his wife and little children, but continued to perform his duty. The President upon learning the cause of the barber's anxiety, told him to finish shaving him and he would have him transported to Alexandria as speedily as possible. When Dalany had finished his tonorial duties an automobile was in readiness and the anxious barber was whisked to Alexandria in a short time. The President before Dalany left the White House told him he would stand by him in case he needed any material assistance as a result of the fire.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.

Lieutenant Smith of the police force was notified today by telephone from Washington that Robert Bell, a native of this city, was found dead in his room at No. 1135 Ninth street this morning with the gas turned on. The coroner had not made an investigation, and it is not known whether his death was accidental or planned. The deceased was about 42 years old. He had been an occasional contributor to newspapers in Alexandria, Richmond and Washington. He was for a long time employed by Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists of this city, but of late had worked in printing offices and other places in Washington. The deceased was a son of the late Robert Bell and grandson of Robert Bell, who for many years was a prominent bookseller of this city. He suffered through most of his life from afflictions the outcome of an attack of scarlet fever while young.

OLD DOMINION WEEK.

This is Old Dominion Week at the Jamestown Exposition. Friday next will be known as Alexandria Day, when it is expected numbers from this city and vicinity will be present. Mayor Paff will appoint a committee of Alexandria ladies to represent the city on that occasion.

The Alexandria Athletic Association's basketball team on Saturday night defeated a team representing Company G, First Regiment, District Militia, by a score of 22 to 15. Announcement is made that the local team will on Tuesday next play a game in its own hall with a picked team from the Second Regiment, District Militia.

Advance in Price of Milk.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—What will amount to nearly $8,500,000 a year was the additional tribute levied against Chicago citizens today by the so-called milk trust. This is represented in an advance of one cent per quart on milk and two cents per half pint on cream. This makes milk cost five cents a pint and cream 20 cents. Chicago consumers use approximately 1,000,000 gallons of milk and cream every day. Big dealers claim the increase is due to the greater cost of the farmers' product.

The Russian Douns.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—The October-Conservative alliance in the Douns won in the election of minor officers of lower branch today. The address to the Czar, as drafted by the Octoberists and approved by the Conservatives, is also unprecedentedly moderate. It says it hopes to abolish anarchy, aid economic development, secure greater civil liberty for the people, bring the Czar and his people closer together and give the government a path of reform.

Philip H. Nale, a prominent farmer, aged 96, died in Culpeper this morning.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Esquire, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy, sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Dr. Vin. Borg, the eye and ear specialist, will be in Alexandria at DeW. Aitchison's office, 107 south Royal street, November 20 and 21. Former patrons can have their glasses readjusted free.

More Cheap Tickets to the Jamestown Exposition.

The Southern Railway, in addition to selling tickets at very low coach excursion rates on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, will, for the month of November, commencing Monday, November 18, sell these tickets on Mondays. Southern Railway also sell round trip tickets to the Exposition at regular daily rates, with various first return limits.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to return my heartfelt thanks to the firemen and citizens generally for their successful efforts to save my property from destruction by fire yesterday afternoon. Had it not been for their timely arrival and heroic work a serious conflagration would have resulted. W. B. DULANY.

NOTICE is hereby given that the time and place of the meeting of the STATE MEDICAL EXAMINING BOARD has been changed from St. union to Lynchburg, and from December 10th-13th to December 17th-20th, 1907. H. M. NASH, Examining Committee. R. M. SLATER, Secretary. E. W. MARTIN, Committee.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 18.—The market was quiet and uneventful yesterday, with some scattered investment buying causing advance in the first hour ranging from one to four points. At the close of the hour the most important stocks continued the upward movement and were at the highest range so far reached. After the first hour the buying power seemed to be exhausted and prices from then until noon sagged off under moderate pressure, a good part of the early advances being lost.

On the curb a nominal market was made for the new one year government 3 per cent. certificates. Bids of 100 were made, although there were no offerings. There were no transactions in Panama canal two per cent. bonds.

He Fought at Gettysburg. David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I have taken. Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and blood builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists. 25c

ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES.

The Gas Is Outclassed

I cannot be compared with electricity when it comes to providing light for reading purposes.

Electric light is strong, clear and steady, and does not injure the eyes. Not so with gas. It is constantly jumping, and plays havoc with the eyes.

An Electric Light

system should be installed in your home or office. We'll do it for you at a reasonable cost. Estimates cheerfully given upon any work in our line.

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 18, 1907.

Has a Job Waiting.

"I hear you're getting to be a real sport," a veteran in that line remarked to a youthful acquaintance of the conservative sort recently married.

The young man repudiated any such intention.

"Just placed a little bet among the boys in the office, you know," he added. "Put in $1.50 and won $40 in a trilling week."

"Well, that's a good beginning, anyhow," said the veteran. "You'll grow up after awhile. What did you do with the $40—put it on the races or open wine?"

"Bought a ton of coal and a set of false teeth for my wife," was the reply.

"When the veteran revived his young friend had disappeared."

"Gee," he soliloquized, "that's a new one in sport! If I win tomorrow guess I'll buy my mother-in-law a new cork leg and some darned cotton."—New York Globe.

Given Her Choice.

Little Harry's experience with death was limited to the decease of a pet canary which had been sent to a taxidermist and now adorned the parlor mantle.

His grandmother, of whom he was very fond, was taken suddenly ill. For some time after he learned of her condition he sat in a brown study. Then, as if coming to a sudden resolution, he tiptoed into the sickroom and, cautiously approaching the bed, fixed his serious big brown eyes upon his dear relative and said, with a little quiver in his voice:

"Say, grandma, if you die, which would you rather be buried or stuffed?" "Cause if you're buried we can't see you no more, but if you're stuffed we can set you in the parlor."

Grandma immediately began to mend—London Scraps.

Matter of Fact.

A visitor from London found in a cafe at Rotterdam a Dutchman who had been about a bit and who spoke English perfectly.

This Dutchman was smoking a china pipe of remarkable size and beauty, and the Londoner, an admirer and collector of such bric-a-brac, took the liberty to comment upon it.

"You could not stumble upon a pipe like that every day," said the Englishman.

The Dutchman took three or four whiffs at the pipe and then slowly removed it from his mouth.

"Certainly not without breaking it," he said, gravely.—London Chronicle.

Soft and Light.

A lady famed for her skill in cooking was entertaining a number of her friends at tea. Everything on the table was much admired, but the excellence of the sponge cake was especially the subject of remark.

"Oh," exclaimed one of the guests, "it is so beautifully soft and light! Do tell me where you got the recipe?"

"I am very glad," replied the hostess, "that you find it so soft and light. I made it out of my own head."—Illustrated Bits.

How It Affected Him.

Mrs. Myles—When are you coming to call on us?

Mrs. Styles—Oh, I really don't know! "But you said you'd come soon and bring your husband?"

"I know I did, and I asked him last night to come over, and he said he'd like to dream over it, and, do you know, dear, he had an awful nightmare last night!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Something Lacking.

"These big hotels are not so complete."

"What's lacking?"

"The express elevator gets you to the fifty-second floor all right, but there's a half mile corridor connects you and no cabs."—Montreal Star.

Had Heard It Before.

"She looks very young to have a grown daughter."

"Yes; she was just telling me—"

"I know. That she was married when she was just barely fifteen years old."—Pittsburg Post.

Didn't Affect Him.

Stella—Mrs. Jones wants a new coat because Smith looks so well in one. Jack—Yes, but Jones won't sign a check merely because Smith looks so pretty when he is writing one.—Harper's Bazar.

It is sometimes advisable to employ a night watchman to look after men who are as honest as the day is long.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Buckler's Arnica Salve known," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all drug stores.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the finest Coffee. It is made from purest coffee beans, and its collection is enforced as required by law.

NOTICE TO STATE TAXPAYERS.
